Mark Oldershaw, RBC Olympian

Mark is a third-generation Olympian and the fifth member of his family to compete at the Olympic Games. His grandfather Bert, uncles Dean and Reed and father, Scott, all competed in the sport of canoe/kayak, but Mark is the first among them to win a medal. Currently, he is training for the Rio 2016 Olympic Games so he can get back onto the podium. Mark is a proud Canadian and lists paddling and volunteer coaching at his local Burloak Canoe Club as some of his favourite things to do.
